LaGuardia Gateway Partners Launches New Accessibility Partnership with KultureCity

KultureCity Sensory Bags Now Available to Terminal B Guests Who Need Calming and Sensory Support in the Airport

East Elmhurst, Queens, N.Y. – December 9, 2025 – LaGuardia Gateway Partners (LGP), the manager and developer of LaGuardia Airport’s new Terminal B, has announced its new partnership with KultureCity, the world’s leading nonprofit on sensory accessibility and acceptance. The two join forces to launch LGP’s new accessibility resource designed to provide calming and sensory support for guests who may find airport environments overwhelming due to sensory sensitivities or disabilities.

KultureCity’s sensory bags are now available to individuals visiting LaGuardia Terminal B, equipped with noise cancelling headphones, fidget tools, sunglasses, and visual cue cards or communication aids. This new accessibility offering ensures LGP’s ongoing commitment to providing the best possible support for every guest from curbside to gate.

“We’re grateful to be working with KultureCity in our continued dedication to making our terminal as accessible as possible to valued guests,” said Suzette Noble, CEO of LaGuardia Gateway Partners. “Terminal B is privileged to offer a range of essential accessibility resources to travelers who may need support throughout their airport journey available in all parts of our terminal.”

The introduction of KultureCity Sensory Bags is the latest addition to Terminal B’s fleet of accessibility resources, consisting of the Hearing Loops System, Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Lanyard, wheelchair accommodations and the TSA Cares helpline. LGP also employs apps including Convo to connect guests to live American Sign Language interpreters and AIRA to help blind or low-vision guests navigate.

As of today individuals seeking sensory bags for themselves or for anyone they’re traveling with can attain more information on the KultureCity App to understand what to expect from curbside to gate. Onsite, sensory bags can be found at the GX Desk (Level 3) or on the Concourse, available upon request.
